

COMMONWEALTH OF PUERTO RICO
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION AND PUBLIC WORKS
INTEGRATED TRANSIT AUTHORITY

RESOLUTION NO. 2014-06

WHEREAS, by virtue of Article 3 and 4 of Law Number 123-2014, a Board of Directors was created for the newly created Integrated Transit Authority of Puerto Rico (hereinafter, the Authority);

WHEREAS, to conduct the affairs of the Authority, its Board of Directors evaluated a draft of the By-Laws of the Integrated Transit Authority, presented as follows:

BY-LAWS of the INTEGRATED TRANSIT AUTHORITY OF PUERTO RICO

I PURPOSE

The purpose of these By-Laws is to govern the manner in which the business of the Authority may be conducted generally, and the way in which the powers and duties granted to and imposed upon it by law, will be exercised and performed; and to provide for the delegation by the Board of Directors of the Integrated Transit Authority of Puerto Rico (hereinafter called the Board) of the Authority's administrative powers and duties that the Board has deemed proper to delegate to the Authority's officers, agents, and employees.

II RESIDENCE

The residence, domicile, and principal office of the Authority shall be in the Municipality of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and its business may be conducted, and offices for that purpose may be located, both in San Juan and elsewhere.

III CORPORATE SEAL

The Corporate Seal of the Authority is in circular form; it has enclosed in its center the letters "ATI" in the first line, the words "AUTORIDAD DE TRANSPORTE INTEGRADO" in the second line, and the year "2014" in a third line. Above said circle, it appears the words "ESTADO LIBRE ASOCIADO DE PUERTO RICO" and below the words "DEPARTAMENTO DE TRANSPORTACIÓN Y OBRAS PÚBLICAS". A copy of the official Seal is herein embossed.

IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

A. The powers of the Authority shall be invested in and exercised by the Board in the manner and form described in Law 123-2014, Article 4. This includes, but is not limited, to appoint an Executive Director and a Secretary, none of which will be a member of the Board, and other officers, agents and employees, and confer to them those powers and duties, and pay them for their services the compensation that the Board determines.

B. The Board may delegate to the Executive Director or to any other official, agent or employee of the Authority, those powers and duties it considers just and proper. The Board will make these delegations through these By Laws, by Rules or Regulations or by Resolutions properly adopted.

C. Action taken by the Board of Directors with respect to the Authority will be evidenced by separately drafted resolutions recorded in the minutes' book of the Authority with a brief description concerning the subject matter of each such resolution and any necessary attachments or exhibits.

D. Composition - The Board of Directors shall have nine (9) members, designated as follows:

1. Two (2) professionals with ample knowledge and recognized experience in the mass transit industry, hailing either from the private sector, academia or retired public servants, who will be selected and appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, with the counsel and approval of the Senate, from a list of candidates recommended by bona fide incorporated professional associations related to the engineering field or transportation planning.

2. Two (2) members will be representatives of the entities belonging to the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO), elected to the post by the voting members of the Board of the MPO.

3. The remaining five (5) members of the Board of Directors will be:

- a) the Secretary of the Department of Transportation and Public Works;
- b) the Executive Director of the Highway and Transportation Authority;
- c) the President of the Planning Board of Puerto Rico;
- d) the Director of the Office of Budget and Management;
- e) and the President of the Government Development Bank of Puerto Rico;
- f) or the appointed public functionaries belonging to the same agencies as the appointed Board members, who shall be ex officio members of the board, and who will become acting members of the Board with all the delegated faculties, functions and responsibilities as appointed members of the Board.

4. The term of the nine (9) members who are not members ex-officio, shall be four (4) years, or until their successors take office, whichever occurs last. Vacancies of Board members of the two (2) representatives of the MPO shall be covered by an election process by the voting members of the MPO, within ninety (90) days of the occurrence of said vacancy.

5. It is strictly prohibited the payment of any compensation to the members of the Board, appointed or otherwise.

E. Who may not be member of the Board. Any person who:

1. is an employee, retired employee or have substantial, direct or indirect economic interest in any private company with which the Authority granted contracts or make transactions of any kind;

2. in the two (2) years prior to occupy the position, had a relationship or commercial interest in any private company with which the Authority granted contracts or make transactions of any kind;

3. has been member of a governing body at the central level or local political party registered in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico during the year prior to the date of designation;

4. be employed, member, consultant, or contractor of the unions of workers of the Authority; or,

5. has not provided the certification of filing of tax returns for the last five (5) tax years, negative certification of debt issued by the Treasury Department, the negative debt certification with the Authority, the Certificate of Criminal Antecedents of the Police of Puerto Rico, as well as the negative certifications of debt from the Child Support Administration (ASUMIE) and the Center of Municipal Tax Collection (CRIM).

6. If a Board member is a public employee, time serving at the meetings of the Board, it shall be ensured as time worked in the agency, corporation or public instrumentality which carries out its tasks.

F. The Secretary of the Department of Transportation and Public Works, will act as the Chairman of the Board.

G. The Board, in addition, shall have power to approve, amend, and repeal those regulations of the Authority that it deems necessary or convenient to carry out its aims, purposes and activities.

H. The Board will determine the distribution and the use of its budget for capital improvements and operations according with its plans and needs.

I. The Board will authorize Officials of the Authority as signatories for the purpose of opening corporate bank accounts, the signing of deeds and mortgages, and any other type of transactions similar or related that are needed for the efficient execution of duties within the Authority.

J. Meetings of the Board:

1. The Board of Directors will meet at least six (6) times during a one-year period. Additional meetings shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board at the request of any Board member or the Executive Director. Attendance to the meetings may be done personally or through any technological means available through which persons at the meeting and the person(s) communicating remotely may adequately hear each other.

2. The Executive Director is authorized to attend all meetings of the Board, but shall not be entitled to vote.

3. Quorum – Five (5) members of the Board, or a majority of the members of the Board if there are vacancies, shall constitute a quorum to conduct business and for any other purpose. Attendance through technological means will count towards quorum, provided however that for Quorum to be verified at least 2 members of the Board need to be physically present at the meeting. Any agreement of the Board will be taken by not less than five (5) members, by majority of the vote.

4. Place and Notice of Meetings:

a. The meetings of the Board shall be held at the principal office of the Authority or at such other place as the Board may agree to by majority of votes. Provided that whenever special circumstances require immediate action by the Board and time constrains and sense of urgency, or any other reason make it impossible or impractical for the Board to meet personally, the members of the Board may be polled by e-mail, or by written notice of the issues involved, by the Secretary or the Assistant Secretary, and prior certification of the Secretary or Assistant Secretary of the result of any such polling any action taken under such circumstance shall be legal, proper and authorized in the same manner as if the Board had convened for a meeting, subject to all of the regulations and limitations contained in these By-Laws. Such action shall be referred to as a "Resolution by Consent".

b. The Secretary of the Board shall prepare and send notices, which will include an agenda of the issues to be discussed in the meeting and all documents pertaining to them, of all meetings to the members of the Board of Directors and to the Executive Director. Said notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the meeting. Said notice shall be sent by personal delivery, mail, email, or fax, at least seven (7) calendar days before the date set for the meeting.

- c. Meetings may be held without the prior seven (7) working days' notice, if the members of the Board sign a waiver of notice for such meeting, but such shorter notice will never be shorter than 48 hours prior to the meeting.
5. Adjournments – Meetings of the Board may be adjourned without notice if a quorum is present. If there is no quorum, the meeting may be adjourned by the members present, or if none, by the Secretary, provided that notice of such adjournment shall be sent by the methods prescribed above to those members absent of said meeting.
6. Minutes – The minutes of each meeting shall include a record of all actions taken, but they need not to include the discussion thereon. Copies thereof shall be sent to each member at hand, by email, fax or mailed, in which case it shall be sent to them at least ten (10) working days before the following meeting. The minutes so sent shall be deemed to be approved, unless objections are raised before or during the following meeting. The Secretary will be the custodian and shall be responsible for the safekeeping of the Minutes.
7. All meetings of the Board of Directors, in which the matters of the Authority which are not expressly excluded as here described, will be broadcast over the Internet, with audio and simultaneous image to the physical meeting. It is not considered a violation of this provision if the temporary interruption of the transmissions of the meetings of the Board, up to a maximum of twenty-four (24) hours, is a real consequence of problems on the server of the Authority, force majeure or interruptions in electricity, as long as it doesn't intervene violence, intimidation or fraud.
8. The Authority will create a space in its Internet home page for the webcast of the meetings of the Board of Directors. The link that is enabled for these purposes must be clearly identified on the portal of Internet of the Authority.
9. The Board will notify all its meetings to the public, through its website, at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance. When convening a meeting of the Board and the same occurs within one period of less than forty-eight (48) hours, the meeting shall be notified to the public before the same, through the home page of the Authority, as soon as possible. The meeting notice shall have, at least, the date, exact hour, place, and the Internet link to observe the meeting.
10. The webcast of the meetings of the Board of Directors shall not be required when:
- a. It is an emergency meeting. An "emergency meeting" is the meeting cited by the Board in order to handle a real or potential emergency that represents a clear and present danger to life or property.
  - b. In a case of a legal action. "Legal action" is any present or proposed action subject to litigation in a Court of Justice or other administrative legal body, pending court action. g. The Board discusses information related to the strategies of the negotiation of collective agreements or employer-employee disputes.

h. The Board discusses issues on the intellectual property of others.

i. The Board discusses issues of public safety, if these are related to threats against the authority, your assets or employees.

11. The Authority must archive recordings of their Board of Directors meetings on the main Internet page of the Authority. The archive link should be clearly identified in the page, together with a certification that the recording is a true and accurate copy of the affairs discussed at the meeting of the Board, except those expressly excluded according to the immediately preceding paragraph above. Also, the Authority must archive a physical copy of the recording in a file. This copy will be available, within a period of thirty (30) days calendar, to the general public that requests it and the Authority will not require a payment to provide copies, beyond the cost of reproduction. The Authority must keep the physical copy of the recording for a term not less than five (5) years. The Secretary will be the custodian and shall be responsible for the safekeeping of said physical recordings.

K. The Board will have the authority to hire, through the Executive Director, those independent advisers who, from time to time, are deemed to be needed in order to perform the Board functions optimally under the Law.

L. The first Board of Directors arising after the adoption of the Act 123-2014, has power to constitute and act in the full exercise of its powers, with the five (5) appointed members. Within ninety (90) days after the enactment of Law 123-2014, the Board of Directors shall meet, organize and appoint its Vice-President. At the same time will designate and set the compensation of an Executive Director and shall appoint a Secretary, none of which will be members of the Board.

M. Committees – The work of the Board of Directors may be executed in one or more working committees, whose composition and functions will be delimited by the Chairman of the Board.

1. Audit Committee

The Board of Directors shall appoint an Audit Committee that shall only report to said Board of Directors. The Audit Committee shall appoint and supervise the Internal General Auditor of the Authority and shall establish an internal audit program for the Authority. The Audit Committee will present to the Board of Directors periodic reports of its meetings and the businesses addressed by it. A removal or resignation of the Internal General Auditor of the Authority will require the approval of the Board of Directors.

The Audit Committee shall be composed of at least two members of the Board of Directors. One of these will be the member representing the professionals in the Board of Directors and any other member shall be appointed by the Board of Directors at will. Shall the professional member of the Board of Directors be vacant, these shall be at least two (2) members designated at any time to conduct the businesses of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall meet at least three (3) times a year and the businesses addressed in all meetings shall be recorded in a meeting minutes.

2. Other Committees

The Board of Directors may appoint any other special or ad hoc committee of any combination of its members to address any special matter, as it may deem just and proper.

The President, by written directive, will establish the scope of action and any relevant guideline. Any action or recommendation taken or develop by those committees, shall be reported to the Board of Directors in the following regular or special meeting, for the Board of Directors actions.

V ORGANIZATION

The general organization of the Authority shall be as set forth in the organization chart attached hereto as Exhibit A of these By-Laws.

The aforementioned chart shall be modified and kept up to date by the Executive Director, as changes and modifications are made by the Board in the organization of the Authority. The Board shall create, consolidate, or eliminate functional units, as the exigencies of the Authority's may dictate; and to determine the functions of these units.

VI EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

A. The Executive Director of the Authority shall be appointed by the Board of Directors, who shall set its compensation.

B. The Executive Director is the Executive Officer of the Authority and, subject to the powers vested by Law in the Board and subject to such restrictions, limitations, and directions as the Board may from time to time prescribe, shall be responsible for the implementation of the Authority's public policy, and for the general management, supervision, and direction of the operational, administrative, fiscal and planning phases of the Authority.

C. The Executive Director will be responsible for the general supervision of the officers, employees and agents of the Authority.

D. The Executive Director has the power, authority, and responsibility:

1. To establish, re-classify, or eliminate positions, within the general classification policies and budgetary limitations approved by the Board.
2. To provide for the opening and closing of bank accounts and, in connection therewith, to designate banks both in Puerto Rico and outside of Puerto Rico to act as depositories of funds of the Authority provided such depositories qualify as such in accordance with prevailing law and regulations.
3. To appoint, transfer, separate, cease, remove, reinstate, reclassify, and promote the regular employees of the Authority, in accordance with the regulations approved by the Board of Directors.
4. To prescribe the duties and obligations of all the Authority's employees, except those expressly or directly prescribed or delegated by the Board.
5. To designate a Committee which will represent the Authority in the collective bargaining negotiations and labor agreements in line with the general policies established by the Board, as necessary; and to keep the Board currently informed of such negotiations.
6. To determine the compensation that should be paid to the Authority's officers and employees on the basis of classification, salary plans, and the collective bargaining agreements negotiated with the Union(s).
7. To award bids and to enter into any and all kinds of contracts for the purchase of equipment, materials, supplies, and services, professional or others, necessary to promote and carry out the purposes of the Authority, pursuant to the Operational Budget, Capital Improvements Program or any other capital improvement budget or funds which the Authority may from time to time by assigned or selected to manage. Provided, however, that the Executive Director may sign all contracts above mentioned subject to the thresholds that, from time to time, the Board may designate by Resolution for the signing of all contracts for the purchase of equipment, materials, supplies, and services, professional or others. The signing of any contract for an amount above the thresholds shall be subject to the prior approval of the Board of Directors.

The Operational Budget, Capital Improvements Program or any other capital improvement budget or funds which the Authority may from time to time by assigned or selected to and any revisions or amendments of them, must be approved by the Board.

Any amendment to any contract of the Authority, shall be signed by the Executive Director, or any other such officer or employee of the Authority that the Board may designate, and then, subject to the thresholds established by Resolution of the Board. In order to expedite the process of amending Contracts, the Executive Director may designate a Committee which shall examine and recommend for approval and/or signing, any and all amendments, which shall be signed subject to the thresholds established by Resolution of the Board.

8. To sell, exchange, convey and/or dispose of, in any lawful manner (except by gift) any land, building, or real property belonging to the Authority, at the appraised value of the same and upon conditions of payments and any other conditions which he may deem appropriate, whenever the selling price of any such single real property shall not exceed the amount of $ 0. Provided, however, that the sale value in each case shall not be less than the value of such property in the accounting books of the Authority, as certified by the Authority's Vice President of Administration and Finance. Prior to each such sale, the Executive Director shall give consideration to the recommendations with respect to the transaction submitted to him in writing by appropriate officers of the Authority.

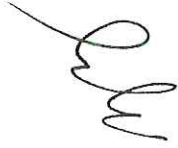

9. To sell and exchange, convey and/or dispose of, in any lawful manner (except by gift) any personal property belonging to the Authority at the appraised value of the same and upon the terms and conditions which he may deem appropriate, whenever the selling price of any such single transaction shall not exceed the amount of $ 0. If the transaction amount is higher, the same will require prior written approval of the Board.

10. To acquire by purchase, exchange of property, or any other lawful means any land, building or real property, which he considers necessary for the Authority; provided that the appraised amount does not exceed $ 0 in any single or aggregated transaction. If the transaction amount is higher, the same will require prior written approval of the Board.

11. To lease or rent any land, building, or other real property or interest thereon, machinery, equipment, materials, and supplies belonging to the Authority, for the term, price and other conditions that may be determined necessary and appropriate, whenever the aggregate rental payment to be received for the lease of any such land, building or property, shall not exceed the amount of $ 0 per year and the term of the lease shall not exceed six (6) years in any transaction of this type, provided such rental payments shall not be less than the minimum rental prescribed by policies or Regulations previously approved by the Board.

12. To undertake surveys, studies, and/or planning activities of any nature whatsoever with respect to any existing project of the Authority or with respect to any project offered or proposed to the Authority; provided that the amount to be allotted or disbursed in any single survey, study and/or plan, shall not exceed $ 0. Any such planning activities shall be coordinated and in agreement with the transportation plan adopted by the Government of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

13. The Executive Director may prescribe and adopt such directives as shall be necessary and proper for the administration and the operation of the Authority, and for the exercise of the powers delegated to or vested in him by Law, by these By-Laws, or by any and all Resolutions, Regulations or other actions approved by the Board.

14. The Executive Director will prepare an itemized yearly budget of the Authority for the consideration and approval of the Board of Directors, which shall include the operations and capital improvement program. The Executive Director will prepare, for the consideration of the Board, a monthly report of the progress of the Capital Improvement and Operational Budget, and will disclose and explain any changes or deviations from them.

15. To sign, execute and deliver, on behalf of the Authority, public deeds, contracts, agreements, commitments, undertakings, documents or instruments of any nature that may be necessary for the discharge of his responsibilities.

16. To modify the terms, conditions or provisions of any contract, agreement, covenant or instrument of any nature whatsoever entered into by the Authority with any other party or parties whenever he deems such action necessary or convenient to assist or facilitate business operations or whenever the party or parties appearing in any such contract, agreement or instrument with the Authority shall be faced with difficulties of any nature which, in his judgment, may be likely to cause the failure of such party or parties, or the result in substantial loss to such party or parties, subject to the thresholds designated by Resolution of the Board. If the transaction amount is higher, upward or downward, of the thresholds established by Resolution of the Board, the modification will require prior written approval of the Board.

Under this paragraph, and without being solely limited thereto, the Executive Director shall have power to extend the dates of maturity or the time for the performance of any obligations stipulated in such contracts, agreements or instruments, and to waive any defaults incurred by any such contracting party, subject to what may be prescribed by Resolution of the Board, if any.

17. Any modification of the terms, conditions or provisions of any contract, agreement, covenant or instrument, monetary or not, previously approved by the Board, must be reviewed and approved by the Board.

18. All settlements negotiated by the Authority in judicial, extrajudicial or administrative proceedings in excess of $ 10 must be approved by the Board.

19. In case of no delegation by the Board, or by reason of death, resignation, total and permanent incapacity of the Executive Director, the office of the Executive Director shall devolve upon the following executive officers, in the order of succession stated below, until the Board provides otherwise:

- a. Deputy Executive Director
- b. Executive Assistant Director of Finances and Administration
- c. Executive Assistant Director of Intermodal Transportation

20. To exercise such other powers and duties as are necessary, proper or usually pertinent to the normal operation and maintenance of the business of the Authority.

E. The Executive Director shall report to the Board of Directors the progress and condition of the operations of the Authority at least in every ordinary meeting held by the Board, including the most important transactions conducted by the Executive Director and shall render such additional reports as the Board may request to him from time to time.

F. The Executive Director shall submit to the Board of Directors, and in turn the Board shall submit to the Legislature and the Governor of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, as soon as possible after the closing each fiscal year of the Commonwealth Government: (1) a financial statement and complete report of the business of the Authority for the preceding fiscal year; and (2) a complete report on the status and progress of all its undertaking and activities.

G. The Executive Director shall also submit to the Legislature (both House and Senate), an annual report on or before January 15 of each year, which will detail efficiency and productivity parameters of all mass transit systems under the Authority's supervision, as per the requirements of Article 16 of Law Number 123-2014.

VII
OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Executive Officers of the Authority shall be the:

- a) Deputy Executive Director;
- b) Executive Assistant Director of Finance and Administration;
- c) Executive Assistant Director of Intermodal Transportation;
- d) Executive Assistant Director of Infrastructure and Planning;
- e) Executive Assistant Director for Human Resources;
- f) Legal Advisor
- g) Safety and Security Officer
- h) Community Relations and Communications Officer
- i) Federal Affairs Officer
- j) Labor Relations Officer

The Executive Officers shall be appointed by the Executive Director. The Director shall appoint and discharge all other officers or at-will employees of the Authority it may deem necessary and appropriate to designate.

Pending appointments, or on case of the temporary absence of any officer, or his inability to carry out the duties of his office, the powers thereof shall be exercised by such officer or employee as may be designated by the Executive Director.

The Authority will have an Internal Auditor, which will be an employee of the Authority, but that will report his findings directly to the Board of Directors with total independence of judgment.

VIII
SECRETARY OF THE AUTHORITY

A. The Board of Directors will elect the Secretary of the Corporation, which may not be member of the Board.

B. The responsibilities of the Secretary are:

1. Prepare and send notices of all regular and special meetings to the Members of the Board and to the Executive Director, including all information and material necessary and relevant to conduct the meeting.
2. Prepare and keep the corporate minutes of the Authority, including all resolutions of the Board and Orders or Circulars of the Executive Director.
3. Have custody of the Corporate Seal, and affix it whenever necessary.
4. Attend to the giving and serving of all notices of the Authority.

C. The Secretary may delegate his duties in an Assistant Secretary, as approved by the Board of Directors.

D. If the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary are absent due to illness, leave of absence temporary disability, travel, or any other cause, the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall designate an Alternate Secretary. Such designation shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

IX INSURANCE POLICIES

Each Member of the Board and each Executive Officer of the Authority, including his family, will be indemnified or compensated for any cost or expense imposed upon him/her or reasonably incurred by him related to any claim, suit or legal proceeding hereinafter instituted, and in which he could be directly or indirectly involved, as a result of his duties as a Member of the Board or as Officer of the Authority. The costs and expenses incurred in reaching reasonable economic settlements with the Authority's consent, including amounts agreed and paid after a "nolo contendere" or other similar allegations, will also be covered.

The Authority, however, will not compensate an adverse judgment in any action or judicial proceeding due to gross negligence or willful misconduct on the part of a Member of the Board or an Officer of the Authority in the performance of his/her duties. The right of indemnification or compensation of the Member or Officer does not exclude other rights the person shall be entitled to by reasons of law, and shall be redundant to the benefit of his heirs, executors and/or estate administrators.

The Authority shall maintain insurance policies with an insurance company authorized to do business in Puerto Rico covering the abovementioned risks to protect the Board members or officers.

X BUDGETS

All operational expenditures, as well as capital investments of the Authority shall be made under one budget, which must be submitted to the Board for approval for all transportation services before the expiration of the previous fiscal year. During the fiscal year of such budgets, the Executive Director shall report monthly to the Board the progress of them.

XI PROJECTS

All projects for special land or property developments or transportation services, which the Authority is to operate for its own account, shall be presented in writing to the Board for approval, together with a full report justifying the need for such operation, and including the recommendations of the Executive Director.

XII FINANCING OF THE AUTHORITY

Financing for projects required by the Authority, in light of the powers delegated to it by Law 123-2014, Article 5 in particular, shall be presented in writing, together with a full report, including the recommendations of the Executive Director, for the approval of the Board, except as the latter may otherwise provide with reference to particular types or classes of cases or circumstances or both.

XIII AMENDMENTS

These By-Laws may be amended by resolution duly adopted at any meeting of the Board, regular or special, provided that notice of intention to present such resolution should be given in writing at least 72 hours in advance of the meeting at which the motion to adopt such resolution is made.

XIV
RESOLUTIONS REPEALED

Any and all Resolutions that govern the operations, administration and internal procedures of facilities for mass transit, maritime transportation, and rail transportation that are in effect at the time these By-Laws are approved by the Board, that are contrary to said By-Laws, will NOT be regarded as valid and will be rendered ineffective.

NOW THEREFORE, after having duly considered the draft of the By-Laws submitted for their consideration, the Board of Directors of the Puerto Rico Integrated Transit Authority RESOLVES:

- A. To approve the By-Laws as hereinbefore stated; and
- B. As to the delegations to the Executive Director to sign on behalf of the Authority left blank in Article VI, section D, paragraphs 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 18, the Board of Directors has adopted the special provision that pending a recommendation of the Executive Director as to the thresholds to be adopted, the President of the Board of Directors shall sign all documents as it was done before the enactment of Law Number 123-2014.
- THE UNDERSIGNED, HON. MIGUEL A. TORRES DÍAZ, President of the Board of Directors and YASMÍN M. SANTIAGO ZAYAS, ESQ., Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Integrated Transit Authority of Puerto Rico, DO HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing is a true and correct Resolution duly adopted by the Board of Directors of the Authority, during an ordinary meeting at which quorum was present, and that said resolution is in full force and effect.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, this 27 day of October, 2014.

HON. MIGUEL A. TORRES DIAZ
President of the Board of Directors
Secretary, Department of Transportation and Public Works

I hereby certify that the aforementioned is a true copy of the original, as it appears on the Book of Acts of the Integrated Transit Authority of Puerto Rico, as approved by its Board of Directors, on 27 of October, 2014.

Yasmín M. Santiago Zayas, Esq.
Secretary
